GIFTS THAT LASTAMUSEMENTS*PERSONAL*DOROTHY DALTON IN YUKON STORY TODAY

Many tales of the Yukon and the lure of Alaska have been notable examples of this type of story, yet witnessed, will be pictured, but one of the most shown at the theater today in Irvin Willard's new production,

The Silent Call.

The theme of this picture is that of in her heart, a woman plays the game square no matter what others may think, she will win out in the end.

Charlene Woodie, played by Dorothy Dalton, is a dance hall girl secretly married to the house painter, who is faithless to her lover yet and who abandons him in the desert.

A stage appears on the scene and then begins a romance.

After many vicissitudes, she is rewarded with the love of a real man.

Mary Pickford in Through the Blue Door.
